

Shaklee Is Your Best Source for Immune Protection

NutriFeron™ – Highest Level of Daily Protection

NutriFeron is an exclusive, patented supplement that increases the production of your body's natural interferon, a key influencer in your immune system. NutriFeron helps build a shield for your immune system, placing it on ready alert so it can better respond to threats.*

A proprietary blend of natural plant extracts from pumpkin seeds, safflower flowers, plantago seeds, and Japanese honeysuckle flower buds, NutriFeron has been clinically proven to support and stimulate the natural immune response.*

Targeted, specific immune nourishment to enhance the production of natural interferon*

Defend & Resist Complex – Emergency Protection

Defend & Resist Complex supercharges your immune system and is meant for short-term, seasonal use. Take it at the first sign of a tickle—or when you have other signals that your body needs an immune boost.

Defend & Resist blends four clinically proven immune-supporting ingredients: echinacea, black elderberry, larch tree, and zinc. Each supports, enhances, and promotes a healthy immune response.*

Extra immune support when you are stressed, fatigued, and feeling that "first tickle."*

Immunity Formula I® – Baseline Daily Protection

Shaklee Immunity Formula I provides nourishment for your immune cells and helps maintain a healthy immune system.

Immunity Formula I provides the essential nutrients for healthy immune function with a combination of vitamins, minerals, and antioxidant nutrients: vitamins C, E, B₆, B₁₂ and folic acid; minerals zinc, copper, and selenium; and the powerful antioxidant, beta carotene. Full nutrient potency is guaranteed with ShakleeGuard®, a patented blend of antioxidants and rosemary extract.

Head-to-toe nutritional and immune function support.

Essential Foundation – A Complete Nutritional Foundation

Start every day with all the critical vitamins, nutrients, and protein your body needs—in perfect proportions. Shaklee Basics® supplements and Energizing Soy Protein promote your overall long-term health, even down to the cellular level!*
